DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Issued October 7, 1937

DETERMINATION OF A FARM, AND OF FARMING PRACTICES TO BE CARRIED OUT IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRODUCTION OF SUGARCANE DURING THE CROP YEAR 1937 FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII, PURSUANT TO THE SUGAR ACT OF 1937

Whereas, Subsection (b) of Section 304 of the Sugar Act of 1937 provides that the Secretary shall determine what constitutes a farm for the purpose of the said act, and

Whereas, section 301 of the said act authorizes the Secretary to make payments upon certain conditions with respect to sugar or liquid sugar recoverable from the sugarcane grown on a farm for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar, and

Whereas, the condition with respect to farming practices, as stated in subsection (e) of section 301 of the said act, is:

That there shall be carried out on the farm such farming practices in connection with the production of sugar beets and sugarcane during the year in which the crop was harvested with respect to which a payment is applied for, as the Secretary may determine, pursuant to this subsection, for preserving and improving fertility of the soil and for preventing soil erosion, such practices to be consistent with reasonable standards of the farming community in which the farm is situated.

Now, Therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine:

1. That in the case of the Territory of Hawaii, a farm means all land which is farmed by a producer, or group of producers, as a single farming unit, with cropping practices, work stock, equipment, labor, and management substantially separate from that of any other such unit.

Published by the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives, pursuant to the authority contained in the Federal Register Act, approved July 26, 1935 (49 Stat. L. 500), under regulations prescribed by the Administrative Committee, with the approval of the President.

DETERMINATION OF A FARM, AND OF FARMING PRACTICES TO BE CARRIED OUT IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRODUCTION OF SUGARCANE DURING THE CROP YEAR 1937-38 FOR PUERTO RICO, PURSUANT TO THE SUGAR ACT OF 1937

Whereas, Subsection (b) of Section 304 of the Sugar Act of 1937 provides that the Secretary shall determine what constitutes a farm for the purpose of the said act, and

Whereas, Section 301 of the said act authorizes the Secretary to make payments upon certain conditions with respect to sugar or liquid sugar recoverable from the sugarcane grown on a farm for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar, and

Whereas, the condition with respect to farming practices, as stated in subsection (e) of section 301 of the said act, is:

That there shall be carried out on the farm such farming practices in connection with the production of sugar beets and sugarcane during the year in which the crop was harvested with respect to which a payment is applied for, as the Secretary may determine, pursuant to this subsection, for preserving and improving fertility of the soil and for preventing soil erosion, such practices to be consistent with reasonable standards of the farming community in which the farm is situated.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine:

1. That in the case of Puerto Rico, a farm means all land which is farmed by a producer, or group of producers, as a single farming unit, with cropping practices, work stock, equipment, labor, and management substantially separate from that of any other such unit.

2. That in order to meet the condition provided in the said subsection (e) of section 301 of the said act, there shall be carried out in connection with the production of the 1937-38 crop of sugarcane in Puerto Rico, except in the Island of Vieques, the following farming practices:

(a) For farms on which there is growing at any time during the calendar year 1937 more than 400 acres of sugarcane, the application of chemical fertilizer to sugarcane land fertilized during the calendar year 1937 in an amount not less than that required for the farms referred to in I. R. Announcement 1, issued July 28, 1937, pursuant to the provisions of Insular Region Bulletin 101, Puerto Rico, issued May 4, 1937.<sup>1</sup>

(b) For farms on which there is growing at any time during the calendar year 1937 more than 100, but not more than 400 acres of sugarcane, the application during 1937 of an average gross weight of chemical fertilizer as defined in the said I. R. Announcement 1, to land on which sugarcane has been planted in 1937 and to land on which a crop of ratoon sugarcane has been started in 1937, in an amount not less than 400 pounds per acre of such land.

(c) For farms on which there is growing at any time during the calendar year 1937 more than 10, but not more than 100 acres of sugarcane, the application during 1937 of an average gross weight of chemical fertilizer, as defined in the said I. R. Announcement 1, to land on which sugarcane has been planted in 1937 and to land on which a crop of ratoon sugarcane has been started in 1937, in an amount not less than 200 pounds per acre of such land.

(d) For farms on which there is growing at any time during the calendar year 1937 not more than ten acres of sugarcane, (1) the application during the 1937 harvest season to the land from which sugarcane is harvested, of the tops and trash cut from such sugarcane; or (2) the carrying out on the farm of any of the soil building practices set forth in the said Insular Region Bulletin 101, Puerto Rico, for which payment would be made in an amount equal to at least 50¢ per acre for each acre of sugarcane growing on the farm during 1937.

3. That in order to meet the condition provided in the said subsection (e) of section 301 in connection with the production of the 1937-38 crop of sugarcane in the Island of Vieques, there must be carried out the following agricultural practices:

(a) For farms of the acreage designated in group 2 (a) above, the required application of chemical fertilizer to sugarcane land fertilized in 1937 shall be in an amount of plant food contained in chemical fertilizer, as such plant food and chemical fertilizer are defined in the said I. R. Announcement 1, not less than the greater of either (1) 75 pounds of plant food per acre of such land, or (2) 90% of the quantity of plant food which was applied during the calendar year 1936, per acre of sugarcane land fertilized during the calendar year 1936.

(b) For farms of the acreage designated in group 2 (b) above, the application during 1937 of an average gross weight of chemical fertilizer, as defined in the said I. R. Announcement 1, to land on which sugarcane has been planted in 1937 and to land on which a crop of ratoon sugarcane has been started in 1937, in an amount not less than 200 pounds per acre of such land.

(c) For farms of the acreage designated in group 2 (c) above, the application during 1937 of an average gross weight of chemical fertilizer, as defined in the said I. R. Announcement 1, to land on which sugarcane has been planted in 1937 and to land on which a crop of ratoon sugarcane has been started in 1937, in an amount not less than 100 pounds per acre of such land.

(d) For farms of the acreage designated in group 2 (d) above, (1) the application during the 1937 grinding season to the land from which sugarcane is harvested, of the tops and trash cut from such sugarcane; or (2) the carrying out on the farm of any of the soil building practices set forth in Insular Region Bulletin 101, Puerto Rico, for which payment would be made in an amount equal to at least 50¢ per acre for each acre of sugarcane growing on the farm during 1937.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of October, 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF THOMAS F. GAGEN

ORDER OF SUSPENSION

The Commission having reasonable grounds to believe that the respondent Thomas F. Gagen, a member of the Boston Stock Exchange, a National Securities Exchange within the meaning of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did during the period beginning on or about May 27, 1935 and continuing to July 31, 1935, effect transactions in the capital stock of the East Boston Company on the said Exchange in violation of the provisions of Sections 9 (a) (1) and 9 (a) (2) of said Act; and

The Commission on May 4, 1936, having ordered that a hearing be held for the purpose of determining whether or not grounds exist to suspend the said respondent from membership on the said Exchange for a period not to exceed twelve months or to expel him therefrom pursuant to the provisions of Section 19 (a) (3) of said Act, as amended; and

After appropriate notice and hearing on the matter before a duly authorized trial examiner, the trial examiner having filed his report, the respondent having waived oral argument before the Commission and having consented to the entry of an order suspending him from membership on the Boston Stock Exchange for a period of twelve months beginning on the 11th day of October, 1937; and

The Commission having duly considered the matter and being of the opinion such order is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Section 19 (a) (3) of said Act;

That, effective on the 11th day of October, 1937, respondent Thomas F. Gagen, a member, as that term is defined in said Act, of the Boston Stock Exchange, a National Securities Exchange, be, and hereby is suspended from said Exchange for a period of twelve months; and

It is further ordered, That a copy of this Order be served upon the respondent herein or his counsel, and upon the Secretary of the Boston Stock Exchange.

By the Commission.
